

The E-RIHS.pt team invites you to attend the second session of seminars HI TALKS - Heritage Innovation TALKS® which will take place virtually, from the University of Évora, next 27 of October, and dedicated to Digital Technologies Applied to Monitoring, Study and Valorisation of Cultural Heritage.

Free zoom meeting. Registration is mandatory

Webinar 27 October
14:30h-17:00h
(Évora time)

14:30h-14:40h Opening session

António Candeias | Vice-rector for Research & Development; Coordinator of IN2PAST Associate Laboratory; Head of the City University of Macau Chair on Sustainable Heritage, University of Évora, PT

14:40h-15:00h Imaging for the scientific documentation and monitoring of Cultural Heritage

Luiz Souza, Willi de Barros Gonçalves | Conservation Science Laboratory, Federal University of Minas Gerais, Brazil

15:00h-15:20h Vulci 3000: a cyberarchaeology perspective

Maurizio Forte | Department of Classical Studies & Dig@Lab, Duke University, USA

15:20h-15:40h Construção, Inovação e Tecnologia | Construction, Innovation and Technology

Paulo Cruz | School of Architecture, Art and Design, Lab2PT, University of Minho, PT

15:40h-16:00h ThESEUS: Towards a Virtual Museum of the City

Helena Murteira, Paulo Simões Rodrigues | CHAIA - Centro de História da Arte e Investigação Artística, University of Évora; Alexandra Gago da Câmara | Universidade Aberta, PT

16:00h-16:20h Investigating archaeological landscapes using airborne laser scanning data

João Fonte | Department of Archaeology, University of Exeter, UK

16:20h-16:40h 3D Scanning for Heritage Conservation and Communication

Marius Araújo | ARTERIA_Lab, University of Évora, PT

16:40h-17:00h Debate | Q&A

Moderator: Sara Szerszunowicz | City University of Macau Chair on Sustainable Heritage, University of Évora, PT

17:00h- Closure